

FARNSFIELD ST MICHAEL'S C OF E PRIMARY SCHOOL

History Knowledge and Skills Progression Document

Highlighted statements are key learning that is assessed in each phase

Key Area	EYFS	Year 1 and 2	Year 3 and 4	Year 5 and 6
Chronological understanding	Know that that they have changed since being a baby. Know that familiar events occur in a particular order. Know that there are some similarities and differences between things in the past and now.	Know how to sequence events or objects in their life on a simple timeline. Know that a specific time has key characteristics and understand what it would have been like to live then. Know how to sequence events and objects in chronological order and give reasons for their order. Know that periods in time have similarities and differences to the present time and make connections with the past. Know how to use words and phrases linked to the passing of time.	Know how to use a timeline to place periods studied in order. Know how to describe similarities and differences between time periods by comparing and contrasting. Know how to place significant events and developments of a period on a timeline. Know that change can be shown by the similarities and differences between specific periods in time. Know how to observe trends and describe how things have changed over time.	Know that chronological positions of periods studied sometimes overlap or occur concurrently. Know how to compare and contrast the characteristics of periods in history, leading to an understanding of how the wider world has changed over time. Know that the chronology of significant events in history subsequently shaped different societies Know that there are patterns that follow throughout History. Know how to make a timeline of events and developments. Know how to note connections between different periods of history.
Knowledge and understanding	Know that people around them have different roles in society and talk about their lives.	Know that there are differences between the past and the present in their own and others' lives. Know that there are some significant local and national events and individuals beyond living memory. (Neil Armstrong, Helen	Know how to make comparisons with now with a period in the past. Know how to compare different periods in time and understand why people acted the way they did.	Know that their point of view may change as they learn new information. Know that significant events in World War II happened in the local area.

		Sharman, Katherine Johnson? Great Fire of London) Know about changes that have happened within living memory. Know about significant historical events, people and places in their own locality. Know that they can use evidence to recognise why people did things, why events happened and what happened as a result.	Know the changes in Britain from the Stone Age to the Iron Age. Know that the Ancient Egyptians were one of the earliest civilisations and what their achievements were. Know that the Anglo Saxons and Scots settled in Britain. Know that the Vikings and Anglo Saxons fought over the Kingdom of England until 1066. Know that the Roman empire had a significant impact on Britain and discuss the impact that we still see today. Know how to develop a chronologically secure knowledge and understanding of British, local and world history, establishing clear narratives within and across these time periods. Know how to undertake a contrasting case study of two groups of people.	Know how and why the Greeks influenced the Western world. Know that the Victorians made major changes in Britain. (local area). Know how to compare and contrast the non European Mayan society to British History. Know how to speculate and hypothesise about the past and formulate their own theories about reasons for change. Know how to develop a chronologically secure knowledge and understanding of British, local and world history, establishing clear narratives within and across these time periods.
Historical enquiry	Know about the past and the present through their own experiences and through storytelling.	Know that artefacts/sources can be matched to people of different ages. Know how to use a range of sources to ask and answer questions about the past.	Know how to evaluate which sources are more helpful than others when learning about the past. Know that there is a difference between fact and opinion. Know that primary and secondary sources are available and vary in reliability. Know how to ask and answer complex questions about the past.	Know how to question the reliability of different sources and evidence. Know that there is often not a single answer to historic questions and give reasons why there may be different accounts. Know that some sources of evidence are more useful than others and evaluate its usefulness and accuracy in order to form their own opinions. Know that they can ask and answer complex questions about the past (e.g. the Greek legacy- democracy etc).

			Know how to select information from a wide range of different sources to find out about the past.	Know how to select information from different sources to find out about the past. Know how our knowledge from the past is constructed through a range of sources.
Organise, evaluate and communicate information	Know how to talk about the past.	Know how to show knowledge and understanding in different ways: drawing writing, talking and role play.	With support, know how to present findings about the past in a variety of ways (ICT) including dates and subject specific words. Know how to organise relevant historical information to construct informed responses.	Know how to present findings about the past in a variety of ways (ICT) including dates and subject specific words. Know how to present detailed findings using historical skills and to be aware of the audience. Know how to organise relevant historical information to construct informed responses.
Historical Vocabulary	Before, after, a long time ago, before I was born	Compare, explain, old, new, now, then, yesterday, today, tomorrow, history before, after, past, present, timeline, chronology, explain, empathy	BC, AD, fact opinion, cause, consequence, significance, empathy, primary, secondary, source, evidence Stone age. Iron age Cave, artefact, Stonehenge, pottery, round house, Skare Brae, Settlement, hunter gatherer Egyptians Dynasty, Egyptologist, Giza, hieroglyphics, mummies, pharaohs, Rosetta stone, Tutankhamen, sarcophagus, pyramid Romans Century (army) citizen, Emperor, gladiator, mosaic, toga Anglo Saxon/Viking, Scots earls, oath, succession, long ship, conquest, invader, plunder, raid, shield wall	Bias and propaganda, analyse, evaluate, empathy, BC, AD, fact opinion, cause, consequence, significance, primary, secondary, source, evidence Greeks Ancient civilisation, decade, century, assembly, Athens, city-state, democracy, Homer, Olympics, Sparta Mayans, Cacao, Chichen Itza Glyph, Haab', Pyramid, Yucatan Peninsula Victorians Industrial revolution, workhouse, Queen Victoria, Prince Albert